“An experience I could never forget...”

The Mannheim Summer School was an experience I could never forget. We, the participants and already friends, exchanged our thoughts, experiences and knowledge. Learning here was a social activity involving people, the things they use, the words they speak, the social setting they're in, and the actions they take.

All of us learned a lot in these three weeks. The lecturers, the organizers and the participants - all were incredibly great.

Thank you!
